Berklee College of Music is a non-profit, co-educational institution which offers higher education in music. We have founded the school on the (1)_________________ that the best way to prepare students for careers in music is through the study and practice of music. We believe that the (2)_________________ of theory and practice leads to excellence. Our main mission is to educate, train and develop students to excel in music as a career. We want them to perform (3)_________________. That’s why, our students practice every day, and they are (4)_________________ the specific type of music that they study. For example, if a student studies classical music, he/she both plays classical music and listens to that specific type performed by different performers.

Our college was founded by Lawrence Berk, in 1945. Since there were only two more music colleges at the time, it was one of the (5)_________________ of its kind. In the 1940s people didn’t believe that music could be learned. They said that a person had to be talented to perform music. The foundation of our school was a/an (6)_________________ to what they said. We believed that with the music education and training provided at Berklee, we could (7)_________________ a student to become a musician. Today, we are proud to see that we were right; our college has created many musicians.

Young musicians come to Berklee from every corner of the earth to study music. This international nature of our college is (8)_________________ an advantage to our students as they can meet different people and learn about each others’ cultures. What is more, this diversity is not merely limited to the students’ background. The wide range of instruments, musical styles, and highly talented and knowledgeable instructors also (9)_________________ learning. With the help of these, students can explore possibilities and find their own paths. Profit has never been our objective; our main (10)_________________ is on the education, success and career of our students.

At Berklee College of music, social life is also very attractive. The Office of Student Activities supports all programs, services and activities that promote learning and leadership outside the classroom.

Let’s take a look at the Berklee cafeteria. In many colleges, cafeterias are the places to eat, drink or socialize. (1)______________, the Berklee cafeteria is a huge exception as it is made for more than eating. There are many attractions held at this cafeteria. (2)______________, every night beginning at 10 pm, Berklee students display their talents by playing their instruments.

During special events, students can be active by doing many things. They can become a part of the leading committee. They can also take part in an advertising team which tries to attract an audience for that specific activity. (3)______________, they can work with students who are responsible for the budget of that event. These students try to find sponsors for each event. (4)______________ it is not very easy to do so, they usually find enough financial support to manage the activities.

There is another wonderful aspect of participating in these activities. Apart from gaining experience, meeting new people and developing leadership skills, each activity appears on the students' transcript when they graduate. (5)______________, when they apply for jobs, they can attach their transcripts to their CVs and have a higher chance of getting jobs after graduation.
