Below is an extract from an article on Oprah Winfrey.

- Read the extract and fill in the blanks from 1 to 10 with the correct form of the verbs in the parentheses.
- Complete the missing parts from A to E with the suitable relative clauses, using the information below. Use commas where necessary. The sentences are NOT in the correct order.

Oprah Winfrey is an American television host, actress and producer. She is best known for her self-titled, multi award winning talk show which (1) ____________ (rate) as the best of its kind in history since the 1990s. She was once the world's only black billionaire, and many of her viewers (2) ____________ (believe) that she has been the most influential woman in the world since the beginning of her show.

Winfrey was originally named "Orpah". However, as her family and friends (3) ____________ (be) able to pronounce "Orpah", she put the "P" before the "R" in every place else other than the birth certificate, and made her name Oprah. After her birth, Winfrey's mother traveled north, and Winfrey spent her first six years living in rural poverty with her grandmother, Hattie Mae Lee. She was so poor that Winfrey often wore dresses made of potato sacks ____________ (A).

Her first job as a teenager was working at a local grocery store. At age 17, Winfrey won the Miss Black Tennessee beauty pageant. She also attracted the attention of the local black radio station WVOL ____________ (B). She became very successful there. In 1983, Winfrey moved to Chicago to host WLS-TV's half-hour morning talk show "AM Chicago" ____________ (C). The first episode with Oprah aired on January 2, 1984. Within months after Winfrey took over, the show went from last place in the ratings to the highest rated talk show in Chicago. It (4) ____________ (rename) The Oprah Winfrey Show, and started to broadcast nationally in 1986.
In the early years of The Oprah Winfrey Show, the program was classified as a tabloid talk show. In 1993, Winfrey hosted a rare prime-time interview with Michael Jackson (D). It nearly had an audience of 36.5 million. Then, in the mid 1990s, Winfrey (5)__________ (bring) a change to her show, and she started to host shows on broader topics such as heart disease, geopolitics, spirituality and meditation. She also interviewed celebrities on social issues (E). Some of the topics were cancer, charity work and substance abuse.

Although she was born in rural poverty, Winfrey became a millionaire at the age of 32 when her talk show went national. Winfrey stepped into a position to get the ownership of the show and started her own production company because of the success of the show. Now, at the age of 57, Winfrey (6)__________ (have) a net worth of $340 million, and not surprisingly, she (7)__________ (call) one of the world's most powerful women by CNN and Time. A magazine, Vanity Fair, wrote: "Oprah Winfrey (8)__________ (influence) the culture more than any university president, politician, or religious leader, except perhaps the Pope. Unfortunately, she has decided to finish her show, and the final show (9)__________ (broadcast) in September 2011. One day, if she (10a)__________ (decide) to produce another show, we believe millions of people (10b)__________ (become) addicts of her show again."

- These celebrities were directly involved in them.
- She worked there part-time as a news presenter.
- He was usually very unwilling to appear in shows.
- This caused the local children to make fun of her.
- The ratings of the program were very low.
1. has been rated
2. believe
3. weren’t
4. was renamed
5. brought
6. has
7. has been called is called
8. has influenced influences
9. is going to be broadcast
   will be broadcast
10. a. decides
    b. will become

A. , which caused the local children to make fun of her.
B. , where she worked part-time as a news presenter.
C. , whose ratings were very low.
   , the ratings of which were very low.
D. , who was usually very unwilling to appear in shows.
E. that/which these celebrities were directly involved in.
    in which these celebrities were directly involved.